CHESTNUT HILL COUNTRY CLUB

Terry Hills features 27 picturesque holes of championship golf that New York Golf Magazine has coined “first-class golf in a friendly down-to-earth atmosphere.” The signature 14th hole is nearly surrounded by water, and it may swallow your ball faster than you can sink a putt! The beautiful clubhouse features a bar and restaurant, with an outdoor patio offering panoramic views of the 1st and 9th greens.

Terry Hills is consistently ranked by Golf Digest’s Best Places to Play as one of the Top 5 public golf courses in Western New York.

STAFFORD COUNTRY CLUB

Located in historic LeRoy just 25 minutes from Rochester and 40 minutes from Buffalo, they offer a great 18-hole experience with private course conditions with a laid-back atmosphere. After golf enjoy a round of ice cold beverages and a meal at their outstanding restaurant and bar. The signature 9th hole is a great 18-hole experience with private course conditions. The back nine is much more defined with tree-lines, making accurate tee shots important. This hole is noted for its huge, deceivingly undulating, but always receptive greens. Good shots are always rewarded!

CHESTNUT HILL COUNTRY CLUB

Noted for its scenic rolling hills and beautiful country setting, Chestnut Hill was described by Niagara Golfer Magazine as having the “Best public greens in Western New York.” The course is consistently ranked among the top in Western New York and is a Golf Digest four-star course. From the beginner to the scratch player, all golfers will enjoy this superbly maintained course. After your round of golf, enjoy a drink on the picturesque outdoor covered patio, or in the newly-renovated Grille Room.

STAFFORD COUNTRY CLUB

Stafford, a private course, has hosted numerous top-level golf tournaments through the years, including both men’s and women’s New York State Amateur Championships, the New York State Senior Men’s Championship, and the Rochester District Men’s and Women’s Championships. These events, and many others, have established a rich reputation for the course. The course architect showed great foresight when he insisted that the clubhouse be located on the ridge overlooking the finishing hole.

BATAVIA COUNTRY CLUB

Batavia Country Club is an 18-hole championship course, centrally located between Buffalo and Rochester. The course offers a fair test to golfers of all skill levels, with tees starting at 5,300 yards and stretching to over 7,200 yards! The putting green is a must-see for any golfer who enjoys a good试卷! It features an 18th hole that over looks the finishing hole.

LEROY COUNTRY CLUB

Located in historic LeRoy just 25 minutes from Rochester and 40 minutes from Buffalo, they offer a great 18-hole experience with private course conditions with a laid-back atmosphere. After golf enjoy a round of ice cold beverages and a meal at their outstanding restaurant and bar. The signature 9th hole is a great 18-hole experience with private course conditions. The back nine is much more defined with tree-lines, making accurate tee shots important. This hole is noted for its huge, deceivingly undulating, but always receptive greens. Good shots are always rewarded!

BATAVIA COUNTRY CLUB

Batavia Country Club is an 18-hole championship course, centrally located between Buffalo and Rochester. The course offers a fair test to golfers of all skill levels, with tees starting at 5,300 yards and stretching to over 7,200 yards! The putting green is a must-see for any golfer who enjoys a good putting challenge. It features an 18th hole that overlooks the finishing hole.

STAFFORD COUNTRY CLUB

Stafford, a private course, has hosted numerous top-level golf tournaments through the years, including both men’s and women’s New York State Amateur Championships, the New York State Senior Men’s Championship, and the Rochester District Men’s and Women’s Championships. These events, and many others, have established a rich reputation for the course. The course architect showed great foresight when he insisted that the clubhouse be located on the ridge overlooking the finishing hole.

Each package is priced per person, based on double occupancy and includes overnight accommodations, breakfast. 18-holes of golf with cart, lunch at the turn, $25 per person Batavia Downs Gaming Free Play. Priced in U.S Dollars, and excludes tax, service fee and gratuities. Starting from rates are shown.